

Amerykańska Akademia Lekarska Pediatrów uznała alienację rodzicielską (Parental Alienation) za formę psychicznego znęcania się nad dzieckiem i alienowanym rodzicem w sytuacji rozwodu, mającą zasadnicze znaczenia dla zdrowia psychicznego dzieci w ich późniejszym życiu, Raport Kliniczny z 28 listopada 2016 r.

Pediatrics - DEDICATED TO THE HEALTH OF ALL THE CHILDREN

November 2016

From the American Academy of Pediatrics

Clinical Report:

Helping Children and Families Deal With Divorce and Separation

George J. Cohen, Carol C. Weitzman, COMMITTEE ON PSYCHOSOCIAL ASPEKT OF CHILD AND FAMILY HEALTH, SECTION ON DEVELOPMENTAL AND BEHAVIORAL PEDIATRICS.

"Parental Alienation can cause distress in the child."

(Cohen GJ; American Academy of Pediatrics Committee on Psychosocial Aspects of Child and Family Health. Helping children and families deal with divorce and separation. Pediatrics. 2002;110(5):1019–1023pmid:12415046 Darnall D. The psychosocial treatment of parental alienation. Child Adolesc Psychiatr Clin N Am. 2011;20(3):479–494pmid:21683914)

"Alienation of the child and the targeted parent is a frequent problem that needs practical professional input to correct the negative effects on all parties. The father's reactions and behaviour to the separation is a specific area that needs professional involvement."

(Andre K, Baker AJL. Working with alienated children and their targeted parents; suggestions for sound practices for mental health professionals. Ann Am Psychother Assoc. 2008;11:10–17)

"Over time the true victims, the children, can display serious symptoms of depression, aggressiveness, social withdrawal, and other psychological problems."
